MuaythaiStuff.com

BUSWOOD MUAY THAI WORLD SUPER CUP 2003

Western Australia's own World, National Champions Challenged By the World's Best!

After the huge success of the Burswood Worlds Greatest Martial Arts Clash in April last year, Phon Martdee in conjunction with Burswood International Resort Casino has assembled some of the worlds best Muay Thai fighters to compete at the Burswood Muay Thai World Super Cup.

Western Australia's own world and International champions will take on the best from around the world. The Main event is Western Australia's own Rhino the Thai Consulate Cup Champion 2002 he will take on Europe's King of the Ring 2003 and WKN World Champion Andrei Kotsur of Belarus (Ex Soviet Union).

The fight will be televised on Europe's Sky TV and local TV. WA's newest World Champion Stephynee Bouquet a 16 year old from Perth will take on Thailand's national champion "Lumpoon". Stephynee has just returned from Thailand defeating all contenders, to secure her world ranking. Lumpoon has had over 50 fights all over the world and only 4 losses. This will be the popular Stephanee's biggest test yet.

Darren "Riddler" Reece another world class WA National Champion will battle with Sorren "Mongkorntong" King - South Pacific Champion and last years $10,000 Super Eight Winner. This will determine who will be the King of the Presidents Cup 2003.
The night will also showcase other up and coming top class WA Muay Thai Champions as they give it their best on the climb to the top.
Tickets available through BOC's ph: 08 9484 1133 and online: www.bocsticketing.com.au or directly through Phon's Gym ph: 0413 813 887.

Special Features
British Rankings
Updated 10/3/05
Forum
Fighter Of The Week
now available
Ring Girl Of The Month
now available

Thailand Discount Hotels FindSpot Thailand Holidays

© 2000-2005 Muaythai Online